'Independence You shouldn't go home again StarTribune.com

July 13th, 2018 - Lee Blessing's Independence is a strong example of the old-fashioned well-made play. Characters are brought together in the single setting: a living room, dining room, and allowed to tell their story.'

'THEATER REVIEW Independence Offers Compelling Look at

November 2nd, 1987 - One need not have seen the recent La Jolla Playhouse production of Lee Blessing's A Walk in the Woods to appreciate his Independence at the Bowery Theatre through Dec 6. But seeing the first play does add immeasurably to "Independence," a naturally dark family drama. News

November 29th, 2012 - URBANA ? Danville resident Nancy Keener just got back to doing theater a year or so ago, spending most of her stage time in Danville Light Opera choruses or ensembles. Figuring she needed experience, auditioning, she traveled to Urbana to try out for a role in Independence, a four-character family drama by Lee Blessing that opens Thursday at Ensemble's Independence Tries To Show A House Divided.
